For President in 1908
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN of Nebraska.

NEVER were the leaders of the discredited machine so badly frightened on the eve of a state election; never was there more evidence that they have cause for alarm.

ALBERT DOUGLAS in his Laurelville speech said he was too young to be a soldier, but he knew more about the war than the soldiers on the field. This the old soldiers resented most pointedly and are censuring him yet for such an assertion. That's Albert for you; he knows it all.

THAT'S a good joke. After the Republican quartette, had practiced and practiced, and sung at several meetings, then when they sing one time at the Douglas meeting here Monday afternoon, that distinguished gentleman went behind the scenes and asked them not sing any more as they were spoiling his meeting.

ATTEND the speeches at the Opera House Saturday night. Judge O. W. H. Wright and Judge Reeves will address the meeting. Some of the little fish have been biting at the hem of the garments of these strong men with scandals and filth, but they will go on in the high sphere in which they move and pay no attention to the snapping, snarling curs in the street.

IT is but this, in this county and district: Boss John White, in the committee rooms, with but a dozen persons present, placed in nomination the republican county ticket. A vote for that ticket is a vote to uphold Boss White's political methods.

If any part of the county ticket is elected, such success is a boast for John White. That is all there is of it. In the district, Albert Douglas received his nomination by the grace of the packed Boss White delegation from Hocking, and a vote for Douglas, boosts John White. That is plain.

WHEN the Secretary Taft special pulled into Logan Monday, there were about fifty people at the depot. The Secretary on alighting to the platform looked up and down the track as if he were probably mistaken as to the town at which he was to speak. If he could have seen the rail-road men behind the trains looking daggers at him, the reception would have been more chilly. The rail-road men remembered that it was Taft, then Federal Judge, that worked the injunction racket on them during the strike, and they have no use for him. It did no good to send Taft to Logan to tell the rail-road men how to vote. They remember him, and despise him on earth.

AT the close of the Taft meeting Monday afternoon the large framed picture of President Roosevelt, hanging on the stage, fell and broke all to pieces. No wonder; so much had been said about Republican congressman "standing by him," in the face of his troubles with Senators Dick and Foraker, that even the picture felt ashamed to fall to the floor. Will Albert Douglas "stand by Roosevelt" as strongly as Senators Dick and Foraker? Judge Wright could do that much and more. If he had been congressman when the rate bill was up he would have stood by President Roosevelt and Senator Tillman both, as against the Ohio republican senators. "Stand by the President" and vote for Judge Wright, for he is not controlled by Boss Dick and Corporate Attorney Foraker.

BRYAN's tour of Ohio amounts to nothing more or less than one continuous ovation. So warm is the welcome extended him by the people of the Buckeye state that the Republican bosses are alarmed and are striving with might and main to secure speakers of national repute to "follow him up." That Mr. Bryan is thoroughly acquainted with the political situation in Ohio, is attested by his masterly arraignment of "Bossism and Graft," upon which the Republican organization as at present constituted is founded. The effect of Mr. Bryan's speeches in this state will be made known on the evening of November 6; but if the warm welcome extended him along the line of route affords a criterion, victory will be the Democracy's portion and a more pronounced victory than that of last year.

ANY person who is interested in the present postmasters and mail-carriers in this county and district holding their jobs, had better vote against Douglas. It will be his first duty to his "buddle" gang to distribute some plums to pay political debts. The present postmasters will be "relieved" and new ones take their places. General Grosvenor's old appointees will skidoo, that is sure. Postmaster McKay of Logan, may just pack his grip and get out if Douglas gets a whack at him, for the place is promised. If Judge Wright should be elected, he could not remove a single federal office holder. Any man who is satisfied with the way Mr. McKay runs the Logan post office, is voting to put him out, if he votes for Douglas. That is sure.

The plain blunt truth is this: the Republican county ticket may have its merits and demerits; it may be composed of good men or bad; it may be formed of competent men or incompetent. Of this we have nothing to say. You know them. But the plain unvarnished truth stands that they were nominated behind closed doors in the committee room at the instance and will of Boss John White, and now, any person who wants to further the power of the boss may vote for his ticket. To defeat his ticket means a body thrust to the boss. That is the situation in a nut shell. Further: It was by the manipulations of a self-named delegation at the Lancaster congressional convention, that Boss White was enabled to nominate Albert Douglas for congress. He, White, forced that nomination absolutely, and if Douglas is elected he owes White the distribution of patronage in this county. Will the voters delegate to Boss White this power, by supporting Douglas. It is not a matter of politics in Congress, for it took the Democratic Representatives and Senators to assist the reforms proposed by President Roosevelt to bring them about while Senators Foraker and Dick of Ohio opposed the president in every important proposition. Thus it is before us. A vote for Judge Wright means the wresting of all federal patronage from the hands of Boss White. A vote for Douglas is a vote for White and an endorsement of all his political trickery and unscrupulous methods. So there you are.

It is with pleasure that we can chronicle the fact that this campaign, on the part of the Democrats has been clean and untarnished. The Journal-Gazette of this week refers to some scandals told about Treasurer Harbaugh, but that paper does not attempt to saddle the blame for such stuff off on the Democratic party or on Mr. Gabriel. The facts are that the slush referred to come out of the mouth of prominent republicans, and Mel Harbaugh and his friends know all about it, and blame no Democrats for its circulation. It was a personal matter, and did not concern politics in any way.

DO YOUR DUTY AT THE POLLS.

(Independent Republican.)

This is the last number of the INDEPENDENT REPUBLICAN to be issued prior to the election next Tuesday. The editor has done all in his power to enlighten the voters on the important issues of the campaign, hoping that when they went to the polls it would be with a thorough understanding of the sacred duty devolving upon them as true and conscientious American citizens. The paper has been conducted along new and original lines, its columns being chiefly devoted to the reproduction of editorials written by Republican and Independent editors and published in Republican and Independent papers, all aiming to bring about the overthrow of the bosses who have, through machine methods and an unholy distribution of patronage, gained control of the Republican party of Ohio and are prostituting the grand old party to ignoble and selfish ends. Thoughtful Republicans know that the party cannot long survive such leadership.

More than one hundred and fifty thousand of them filed a vigorous protest last year by voting for and electing John M. Pattison governor.

But the bosses would not heed the lesson.

Again, at the state convention, under the able leadership of Congressman Burton, President Roosevelt's personal friend and representative, another effort was made to dethrone the bosses and place new men, representing the real Republicans of the state, at the helm. The effort failed; the bosses were too strongly entrenched. That convention, controlled by the Cox-Dick-Foraker machine, outraged the feelings of all admirers of President Roosevelt by the adoption of a platform carrying a direct insult to the President of the United States. It made Dick chairman of the executive committee and Walter Brown, the notorious Toledo boss and lobbyist, chairman of the next highest committee. It named a machine ticket and the bosses are now touring the state begging Republicans to support it in the name of the president they so wantonly insulted.

Another lesson must be taught.

It can be taught only by the thousands of fearless independent voters who administered the lesson last year which resulted in the election of Governor Pattison.

This is an age of independent voting. Thoughtful men now well realize that political bosses and political machines owe their origin and their existence to partisan voting, voting the "straight ticket," and that their downfall can only be brought about through independent voting, the casting of ballots according to the dictates of conscience instead of prejudice.

We repeat, this is an age of independent voting.

Two years ago we saw more than one million Democrats voting for Theodore Roosevelt.

One year ago we saw one hundred and fifty thousand Republicans voting for John M. Pattison.

This year we see President Roosevelt advocating the election of the independent judicial ticket of New York.

We see the most prominent Democrat of the nation advocating the election of the independent judicial ticket of Toledo.

We see S. A. Hoskins, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, fearlessly advocating the election of the independent judicial tickets of both Cincinnati and Toledo.

These men are blazing the way for purer, higher and nobler politics. Will your manhood, your American spirit permit you to remain idle? Get out and do your duty.

Help smash the machine; dethrone the bosses. There is only one way to do it effectively—defeat the machine ticket, the ticket named by the bosses who controlled the Dayton convention.

Do your duty next Tuesday and when this is done the grand old Republican party will be freed from its barnacles, can lift its head proudly and say to the other states of the nation "We are again the party of Lincoln, of Garfield and of McKinley."

JOHN S. WAGENHEAL.

SHOULDER TO SHOULDER

The Boys in Blue Will Fight Against Bossism

The old soldiers in Jackson county are up in arms, led on by such a splendid old veteran as the Hon. Andrew Roy, the first Mine Inspector of Ohio.

Because these veterans had dared to vote for an old comrade last year in the person of John M. Pattison, this year, Mr. Gould, Dick's warden of the penitentiary, and his committee stipulated in the call of the Republican primaries that any man who had voted against Mr. Herriek should be refused recognition at the polls as a Republican. In consequence many old soldiers as well as other independent Republicans were actually disfranchised by this high-handed boss method.

Hon. Andrew Roy, one of the ablest and cleanest Republicans in the state, is out in the Wellston Telegram and among other things says:

As the boys in blue stood shoulder to shoulder in the heat of battle, so they will now stand shoulder to shoulder until the stigma put upon them is washed out at the polls. The more they discuss the indignity the greater their indignation becomes. They think of the days when on the March, in the bivouac, on the tented field, and in the storm of battle they stood between the enemy and their homes. They think of the days when in the fiery-eyed fury of battle they hurled defiance at the foe and gave and received blows, for that liberty which was denied them by a contemptible political boss. They will go to the polls with the firm tread and war-like fury in which they charged the enemy and wipe out the indignity heaped upon them by the disfranchisement of comrades. "Remember the primary" will be the countersign. The 190,000 independent Republicans in Ohio will stand shoulder to shoulder with the grizzled warriors for honesty, fair dealing and death to the political boss system, until the grand old party is rescued from the miscreants, who are preying on its vitals, and they are sent into oblivion or the penitentiary.

4,000 Pairs Ladies' Misses and Children's Wool and Cotton Hose and Men's 1/2 Hose at 1/2 Regular Prices.

THEY are all the famous Black Cat kind, "seconds," that is they are slightly imperfect, but if you looked them over you would not see anything wrong with them. They look and wear as well as the kind you pay 25 and 50c for. We could sell most of these hose as firsts and at the regular prices 25 and 50c and give you good value, as the imperfections are so slight that it takes an expert eye to detect them. Maybe a heavy thread here or a dropped one there, but they have all been mended and are guaranteed to give satisfactory wear or we will replace them.
